

Guidelines

July 2022

Guidelines of the Open Access Publishing Fund for Social Sciences and Humanities

- (1) The author is an employee of the University of Zurich. For multiauthor publications, either the first or the last author must be an employee of the University of Zurich with the implicit understanding that the work was mainly created there.
- (2) If neither the first nor the last author is an employee of the UZH, then the submitting author and least one third of all authors have to be employed at the UZH.
- (3) Adjunct professors or senior lecturers (Privatdozierende or Titularprofessoren) that are employed by a separate institution can apply for financial support if at least one third of all authors is employed by the UZH.
- (4) A current employment or matriculation or at the time when the work was created, is necessary.
- (5) Eligible for benefit are all authors (from doctorate level) affiliated with
 - the Faculty of Law,
 - the Faculty of Arts,
 - the Faculty of Theology and
 - in certain cases, authors affiliated with the Faculty of Economics or the Faculty of Science (criterion: social sciences and humanities).
- (6) The fund covers publication costs of max. three publications with max. 2'000 CHF each per author, research group, publication and current year for:
 - Articles published in an Open Access journal
 - Monographs that are published with Open Access
 - Book chapters that are published with Open Access (provided the whole work is OA)
 - Edited scientific works that are entirely published with Open Access
- (7) The publication must be published under a Creative Commons License or an equivalent open license.
- (8) The publication must be reviewed (peer-review or editorial review).
- (9) The publisher must guarantee immediate and free online access to the work after publication on their website.
- (10) The publisher allows the deposition of the final published version in ZORA without embargo period.
- (11) The grantee is obliged to ensure archiving in ZORA after publication.
- (12) Not supported:
 - individual OA articles in subscription-based journals (problem of double funding in hybrid models)
 - articles and book chapters that have already been funded by other grants (e.g., Bretscher Fund of the ZB)
 - OA publications for which third-party funding exists (e.g. SNSF or EU)
- (13) If possible, the funding of OA-costs is to be mentioned in the acknowledgement as follows:
[Open Access costs financed by University Library Zurich].

In each case the Main Library of the University of Zurich reserves the right to accept or decline a publication submitted under the conditions of the membership independently of the guidelines listed above. The fund contains a limited annual budget, which is spent according to “first come – first served”. There is an annual decision on the renewal of the fund year after year.

Contact

University Library, University of Zurich, Tel. +41 44 635 41 62 / E-Mail: oa@ub.uzh.ch